She is preparing to teach stenography, typewriting, and other business courses. Miss Harris spent a few days at home recently, and returned to Philadelphia last week.

MEETS VIOLENT DEATH

Mrs. Wm. E. Younker (Mary Montgomery) Thrown From Her Wagon in Illinois.

While Mrs. Wm. E. Younker, who resided about four miles northeast of Edinburg, Ill., was returning to her home from Bolivia where she had been delivering milk on Thursday afternoon of last week, she was thrown from her seat in the spring wagon in which she was riding and received such serious injuries that death resulted in a few minutes. She was driving down a hill and her team frightened.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Montgomery, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Montgomery, and was born in this county in 1853. At the age of three years, her parents removed to Christian county, Ill., where they settled near Mt Auburn, and lived in that community since.

In 1876 she was married at her home to William F. Younker, who with the following children survive: Mrs. Jennie Boaden, wife of Manford Boaden, near Edinburg; Annie, wife of Herbert Kohl, near Bolivia; and Ethel, Fay, Earl, and Glen Younker at home; four brothers also survive—Edward, of Mt. Auburn; Hiram L., and Thomas, of Mt. Auburn, and Dr. Montgomery, of Blue Mound.

The deceased was a member of the Baptist church near Grove City and was an earnest, consistent Christian.

The Touring Party.

Next Sunday, April 25, the Sunday Schools of Fulton county will have their annual Spring opening day, when a special effort will be made to enroll everybody in some school. Already the county secretary received the promise from a number of superintendents to make the canvass this week and report the number present next Sunday. Then, next week, the newspapers will report the number of people actually present in the Sunday Schools in the county for that Sunday. Over one thousand people were present last week to greet the Sunday School party that toured the county. New teacher training classes, home departments, cradle rolls and organized classes were promised by the people. Hoping to have your fullest co-operation in the coming county convention, May 20 and 21, in McConnellsburg, I am

ROBERT E. PETERMAN,
County Secretary.

DEALER IN

High Grade Plain Pianos, Player Pianos, Organs, Victrolas, Records, and Professional Tuner, McConnellsburg,

Nothing adds more to the refinements of home than good music. To have good music you must have a good instrument. There are good bad and indifferent instruments, and to the unskilled eye they look much alike. The unprincipled dealer is likely to make you pay a first-class price for a fourth-class instrument. I have lived in this county since my birth, I am a taxpayer and in a position to make good any business transactions. Buy your piano, organ, or victrola from me and if it is not all right you can come back at me.

There are families in every part of this county that have purchased instruments from me. Ask them about me.

Perhaps you want to trade your organ for a Piano, or Player Piano; or your Plain Piano, for a Player. See me. Let's talk it over.
